THE PARISH REGISTERS

OF BOLNEY, SUSSEX.

1541—1812.

EDITED BY

EDWARD HUTH.

ISSUED TO SUBSCRIBERS OF THE SUSSEX RECORD SOCIETY AS AN EXTRA VOLUME FOR THE YEAR 1912.

1286726

P R E F A C E .

THE Registers of the Parish of Bolney commence in 1541 and continue without interruption from that date. The oldest of the books finishes with the year 1653, at the end of page 73 of the present volume. This earliest book, as being perhaps the most interesting of the series, has been transcribed verbatim, the subsequent entries merely giving the names and dates, except in those cases where they have seemed of sufficient interest to warrant a fuller transcription.

On the whole, the Registers seem to have been carefully made, though there are periods during which the entries appear somewhat confused and out of their proper order, notably so in the years 1591-2.

The second book was begun in 1638 for the purpose of entering the names of those whose duty it was to repair the churchyard fence and the number of feet they were responsible for. It seems to have been given in 1654 to John Field, who had been chosen Parish Registrar under the Act then passed for registering marriages.

The Editor is greatly indebted to Mrs. MacLeod, wife of the Rev. R. C. MacLeod of MacLeod, sometime Vicar of Bolney and now Vicar of Mitford, Northumberland, for her careful transcription of the earliest of these Registers, and to Miss Cooper, daughter of the late Canon Cooper, Vicar of Cuckfield, who is so well qualified for the work by her intimate knowledge of local names and places, for her transcription of the remaining books. His thanks are also due to Mr. W. C. Renshaw, K.C., for much assistance, and especially for the list of marriages of inhabitants of Bolney which were celebrated elsewhere, and to the Rev. William Hudson for his general advice and supervision.
